Greenville Public Hearing Will Focus on Medicare Fraud, Medicaid Transportation Contract and Office on Aging Budget

What: Lt. Governor André Bauer will hold a public hearing in Greenville on Monday, July 16, to receive input from senior citizens and their community of service. Although open to all viewpoints and inputs, the hearing is intended primarily to gain information in four specific areas:

- 1) Medicare insurance marketing abuses
- 2) Medicaid transportation program changes and their impact on seniors and the aging network
- 3) Incentives to encourage more public and private home- and community-based services in light of new federal initiatives
- 4) Development of new four-year aging plan and the Lt. Governor's Office on Aging budget plan

When: 9:30 a.m. until 12:00 noon, Monday, July 16. Lt. Governor Bauer and other participants will be available to answer questions from media representatives from 12:00 until 12:30.

Where: The Greenville County Council chambers, Greenville County Square, 301 University Ridge. Directions/map are available from the Greenville County government web site, www.greenvillecounty.org.

For more information about this event, contact Frank Adams in the Lt. Governor's Office on Aging at (803) 734-9912 or (803) 622-5412.
